CLUB FOCUS

The year 1977 has left a legacy of misfortune and mishap at Millwall and we at The Den are naturally hoping that 1978 will bring a more gentle and encouraging wind of fortune down Cold Blow Lane.

People always look upon the turning of the year as a time for fresh starts, but more often than not it is the effort we put in that brings a change in fortune. Nevertheless, we look with optimism to 1978 bringing a larger share of luck.

When 1977 dawned, things looked a great deal rosier. Our progress in the Second Division had carried us into a fairly healthy position, and although injuries interfered with our plans for occupying one of the high places in the Second Division, our late run of 11 points out of 12 took us into 10th place at the end of last season and gave us much to hope for from the current season. As we also reached the quarter finals of the Football League Cup before being knocked out by the eventual winners, Aston Villa, there was much to suggest that we were entitled to be in better company. At the start of this season, defeats in our first three games were slightly offset by the pleasure of winning 2-0 at Newcastle in the League Cup, but as this season progressed towards winter, it became obvious that the burden of an unusually heavy casualty list was going to be a cruel handicap. At the start of the season, our then Manager, Gordon Jago, spoke of his confidence in his squad, six of whom were 22 or under, and which had been strengthened by the signing of Bryan Hamilton and Brian Chambers, but slowly the strength of the squad has been picked off by injuries which lay in wait like snipers along the way. In no time at all there were barely 14 full-time players to choose from, we found it difficult to score goals, particularly at The Den, and our struggle took on fearsome proportions. Gordon Jago's decision to accept a very lucrative offer in America left us managerless at the beginning of this month and the picture overall has not exactly been brightened by the unsettled atmosphere that inevitably follows the departure of a manager.

On top of all this, we appear to have been elected to carry the cross of football hooliganism. Many other clubs, if not all of them, have their share of undesirable supporters, but through one reason or another we have had to blink into a glaring spotlight, as if the problem belonged only to us.

Undoubtedly all this attention to a small and much regretted minority of our followers has given us an image which we neither want nor deserve, and the cost to our morale has been immeasurable. What is more measurable is the effect on our income. At a time when every club in our position is struggling hard to meet high costs of running a modern football club, we have suffered a direct loss of many thousands of customers because of this season's publicity. The publicity that led up to our game against Spurs on Boxing Day cut severely into our attendance and we estimate that we lost between 5,000 and 10,000 spectators because of the threatened violence. Whether these stories and reports were in themselves inflammatory and provocative, we leave for others to judge. As it turned out, the trouble was far less than anticipated, but the damage to what should have been a highly enjoyable and exciting holiday football occasion was disheartening.

We now look forward to a New Year in which we can make progress both on the field and off it. We hope to be appointing a new Manager as soon as possible. We realise how difficult it is when there is this lack of a permanent guiding hand, but we are also mindful of the need to choose the right man. Many applications have been received, and the Directors are giving very careful consideration to a number of well-known names in football, and as soon as there is any news an announcement will be made.

Today's game against the Division leaders, Bolton Wanderers, is another tough hurdle, but 1977 has produced a few of those for us. If we can end the year on a high note, it might help us to wake up tomorrow morning with less of a headache. May we wish all those who share our ups and downs at The Den a very Happy New Year.

Sixteen Football League Cup appearances and five in the F.A. Cup. He was married in May this year, and he and his wife Yana now live in Gravesend.

news & views

Appropriately on this the last day of 1977 we would like to extend to all our supporters our very best wishes for a HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR. 1977 has not been the happiest of years so far as the Club is concerned, but then that's life. Let us all hope that 1978 will prove to be a better time for us all and that by the time the season ends in April we can at least attain a respectable position in the table.

On Monday 9th January our Juniors go to Reading in the F.A. Youth Cup Third Round, kick-off 7.30 p.m.

LEAGUE FIXTURES

welcome to BOLTON WANDERERS

We end the year 1977 with most attractive Visitors in Bolton Wanderers and as we welcome them to The Den may we wish them a very Happy 1978 and hope that at the end of the next four months they will have clinched a place in the First Division which has so narrowly escaped them for the past two seasons. Last season's clash at The Den resulted in a three goal win for the Lions, and the Trotters must be hoping that their visit on this occasion does not follow the pattern set by their other visits to the Metropolis this season when their London opponents have sent them home to Lancashire practically pointless.

Millwall have a good record against them at The Den. In fact history reveals that even in the dim past the Lions did well against their Northern opponents. Back in November 1894, Bolton was the first of three teams from Division One to visit our old East Ferry Road ground in the Isle of Dogs, a match Millwall won 5-1 thanks to goals by Harry Robertson 2, George Aitkin 2 and Alf Geddes. The team that day was Saunders, John Graham, Wiggy Davies, G. King, Harry Mathews, Albert Simm, Wilson, Harry Robertson, A. McKenzie and Alf Geddes. Bolton who began as Christ Church F.C. in 1874 are one of the original twelve founder members of the Football League. They turned professional in 1880. In their early League days they alternated between the First and Second Divisions, and although they have never won the League Championship they have been close to it on three occasions, finishing third in 1891/92, 1920/21 and 1924/25. Bolton's long est unbroken spell in the First Division lasted 22 seasons from 1935/36 until 1963/64. They spent two seasons in the Third Division when they lost Second Division status in 1970/71. In the past several famous personalities have performed in the Bolton colours, none more notable than Nat Lofthouse, both as player and Manager. Nat was capped 33 times for England. Ian Greaves currently managing the Burnden Park outfit must be hoping that its third time lucky for his Club as he calls upon the following squad to restore First Division football to Bolton. In goal they have Jim McDonagh who first joined them on a month's loan from Rotherham at the start of last season. He impressed and was signed for £10,000. He took over as custodian with the transfer of Siddall to Sunderland and held the first team spot for the remainder of the season. In reserve for Jim is Terry Poole who was signed from Huddersfield

Town for £25,000. In the full back positions, Bolton are well served by John Ritson and Tony Dunne. John is a Liverpuddlian and joined Wanderers from schoolboy soccer. He graduated through the junior sides and is now a strong defender with an attacking flair. Tony, of course is an Eire International who has played for most of his career with Manchester United. Was a member of the United's European Cup winning side and since joining Bolton has established himself as a favourite of the fans. Bolton have a wealth of talent in defence including Peter Nicholson signed from Blackpool for a small fee prior to the 1971/72 season and has proved to be a real bargain buy. Can play anywhere in defence and can also operate in midfield. Paul Jones is a central defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. Commanding in the air as well as on the ground and seems destined for further honours. Sam Allardyce, another central defender born in the Midlands who joined the Trotters from school and since coming into the side in 1975 has held down a regular place. Also in defence there is Mike Walsh. Manchester born he joined the Wanderers from school. He is being groomed for a place in the side and seems certain to win a regular place soon. Completing the defensive set up there is Andy Clements who made his debut in the pre-season Anglo-Scottish Cup games. Joined the Club as a schoolboy and is versatile enough to play either at the back and midfield and has had several games as a striker. In midfield there is long serving Roy Greaves, born in Farnworth near Bolton. He is a non stop worker whose work-rate has to be seen to be believed. Peter Reid joined Bolton from school on Merseyside and has played for England's Under-21 side last season and went on a close season tour of Scandnavia with the national side. A constructive player who reads the game well and is a fine passer of the ball. Just before the transfer deadline last season Bolton bought Ray Train for £30,000 from Sunderland. He is a terror in the tackle and is always in the thick of the midfield action. Two others standing by in midfield are Brian Smith and Alan Waldron. Brian is small but active. His chances have been limited by the form of Peter Reid and the signing of Ray Train. Alan is another who joined Bolton from school. Has now recovered well from a bad ankle injury, but unable to get a regular first team spot. Had a spell in American football prior to last season. Up front the Trotters are well served by two experienced wingers in Peter Thompson and Willie Morgan. Peter, of course, is the former Liverpool and England player who has won most of the honours in the game. Very tricky and a firm favourite with the supporters. Willie started his career with Burnley and then moved to Manchester United for a big fee. He returned to Turf Moor and was signed by the Trotters two seasons ago. He is a Scottish International and a member of the last World Cup Squad.

Joining in the striking force is Neil Whatmore, a strong attacker with a flair for goals. Last season had a tally of 31 goals to top the Second Division scoring chart for League and League Cup goals. Neil is joined by Garry Jones; Manchester born Garry is a strong running attacking player who puts pressure on defenders, and to complete a formidable strike force there is Bolton's latest signing Frank Worthington who joined them from Leicester for a £90,000 fee in October. Started with Huddersfield where he served under his present Manager when he was in charge at Leeds Road. Frank is an England International with lots of skill in the air and on the ground.

Stars of the Future

We probably have one of the best Youth sides at Millwall for many a year and we would like to take this opportunity to put on parade just five of them. There are others of course, and as you know two of our youngsters have just become full-time contract players, i.e. Chris Dibble and David Mehmet. Allow us to introduce you now to:

DAVID GREGORY

David is still at school although he is now 17. In fact when you consider his academic qualifications this is not surprising. He has already passed for University with 10 'O' Levels and 3 'A' Levels to his credit and we hear that he is sitting for 3 more 'A' Levels this year. So with David it will be a question of choice, University or Football. As an Under-15 he played for Middlesex Schoolboys and was offered apprentice forms by near neighbours, Crystal Palace which he turned down to continue at school. He is a Non-Contract player with us, playing at Centre-half or Left-back.

DAVID PEARCE

David is another Middlesex Schools player who on leaving school joined Hillingdon Borough F.C. He is 17 years of age and a Non-Contract player with the Lions. He was working as an apprentice Car Mechanic. He is currently the Club's leading goalscorer having netted 8 in the S.E. Counties League, 2 in the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup and 3 in the F.A. Youth Cup.

PHIL COLEMAN

Phil is a local lad who attended the Roan School and played for the highly rated Blackheath Schoolboys and Inner London Schools. When he left school last summer he signed Apprentice forms for Millwall. He operates in the Centre-back position.

DAVID ROBERTS

Dave is another local boy who played for Blackheath and Inner London. He was an associated Schoolboy with Arsenal. He asked for his release from Arsenal and subsequently signed as a Non-Contract player with the Lions. David is a midfield player.

KEVIN O'CALLAGHAN

Kevin is an Associated Schoolboy with us and highly thought of. He has represented at schoolboy level, Newham District, Essex County. All London and has been an England trialist, and has been much sought after by other clubs. He leaves school at Easter, and has already played in our Reserves. Kevin is a Wing Forward or can slot in at Mid-field.

MIDWEEK LEAGUE

As there were no matches played over the Christmas period we are presented with the opportunity to review the first part of the season. We have pointed out before that for most of the matches played in the Mid-Week League and League Cup we have had to rely upon the same players who turned out for the Juniors in the S.E. Counties League, so allowing for their youth and comparative inexperience they have done remarkably well. So far they have played nine League games and won four, drawn two and lost three. In the League Cup they have not done very well, losing all three matches played. Three of their matches have been postponed i.e. Home and Away v Cambridge United and away to Northampton. There is also a postponed match v Gillingham in the League Cup. New dates for these are being arranged and you will be notified. The away match v Charlton which should have been played on 4th January has now been arranged for 18th April, 1978.

JUNIORS

It's a real pleasure to review the performances of our Juniors for the first part of the season. In the South East Counties League with just over half the matches played the Lads have amassed a total of 20 points which is only 7 points short of last seasons overall total. For the first four weeks of this season our youngsters led the League Table and for the remainder of the period have never dropped lower than fourth. What has pleased us behind the scenes has been the quality of their play and we feel sure that from amongst their ranks we have some potential First Team players for the future. Already two of their number Chris Dibble and Dave Mehmet have now become full contract players and both of them have received their baptism in the Football League. We are certain that others will follow. Chief marksman for the Juniors to date is Dave Pearce with 15 goals to his credit, 10 in S.E. Counties League matches and 5 in Cup matches. Both Dibble and Mehmet have already been selected for F.A. Youth XI's and Glen Morris also had a game for them last week. So all in all the outlook looks very promising for the future of the Club.
